ORGANIC FARMING

On September 30, 2024, Organic Farming Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm. As part of this special event, children were encouraged to bring vegetable saplings to school. A plantation drive was organized near the kindergarten block, where the young students actively participated in planting the saplings.

The event aimed to raise awareness about the benefits of organic food and to teach our little champions the basics of growing organic vegetables. Through this hands-on experience, children learned about the importance of sustainable farming practices and developed a deeper connection with nature. This initiative will help inspire them to adopt healthier and eco-friendly habits in the future.
