PPS VIBES

Having finally done away with the jittery examinations and having come out with flying colors to climb the next rung of the academic ladder; children eagerly look forward to come back to school. Indeed the school hums with life with the cacophony of voices and noise sprinkling glee all over the campus.

Having got back to the School after a refreshing summer, I'm sure you feel re-energized, reinvigorated to tackle the challenges of the new term. It's time for new learning and mastering the old.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVERS

Even this year PPS churned out yet another successful batch of the 10th class. The 8th batch, retaining the legend set by their seniors, in maintaining the 100% result, brought dazzling smiles on the faces of the management and staff. Balchander and Vishal Kurubu emerged out toppers scoring 95% & 93.2% respectively..

INCEPTION OF THE NURSERY SECTON

Our school swung into action. The Tiny Tots, 18 in number stepped into the portals of our school, thus opening a new chapter in their lives. The Management has left no stone unturned to create a positive and viable environment. The new incumbents were welcomed and lured by chocolates and attractive handmade cards. The day was indeed thrilling; kids had fun with toys, played amidst the nature in the Play park. A well maintained and safe, physical environment fosters students' comfort and ability to learn, achieve, score besides leading to inculcating appropriate behavior.

STRENGTHENING COMPATIBILITY AND PARTNERSHIP

The role of the Parents in their wards education has long been recognized as a significant contributing factor in the educational success and school improvement. A PTA meet for parents of the tenth class was held on 4th June 2018. Parents were appraised of the yearly plan, in turn reminded of their responsibilities in taking care of their wards over all well-being during, the crucial year. Parents were motivated to ensure their wards full attendance, that proper learning takes place at home, in turn displaying a positive attitude and to be a constant support.

WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY

This year's theme 'BEAT PLASTIC POLLUTION' has prompted the world to come together and combat the menace of plastic pollution—indeed a challenging task. The school students on this occasion performed an inspiring skit during the assembly highlighting on banning the use of plastic, saving the earth and environment. During the day the students from classes 5th to 10th were thrilled to find the day with full of activities. They whole heartedly participated in essay writing, composing poetry, drawing, painting and even discussion.

VALUE EDUCATION IN SCHOOLS

A workshop on 'AWAKENED CITIZEN PROGRAM', a unique value education program for children, is a three year graded value education program for students in middle school and high school
